TRANSCRIPT OF WHAT MATTERS

- Spent 7,300 mornings together
- Had 63 - Spontaneous heartfelt talks
- Had 36,421 Everyday conversation about nothing
- Had 176 heart felt apologies
- Had 2, 126 not so heart felt apologies
- Prayed 18,000 meal prayers together
- My child saw me at my worst
- My child saw me at those rare time when I laughed so hard I could barely breath
- Together we watched 100's of episodes of Andy Griffith, Dick Van Dyke, and Hazel
- We watched the snow fall in the middle of the day and wished it would never stop
- I watched the kids play outside in the early spring dressed in a superman cape/ shorts/ and winter boots
- After lunch we sat outside in the sun and talked
- We'd drop in on our older kids just to talk about the night before or the days plans
- Had lunch at McDonalds and splurged on McFlurries...the big ones
- We baked cookies in the middle of the day
- We worked side by side getting ready for company
- We took flowers to an old person
- We wrapped gifts and listened to Christmas music
- Together we experience the mundane and the sacred together and realized it was the same
- We redeemed 16,380 hours because we chose to educate our kids at HOME
